Krause Murder Case Is Now On In Juneau Krause Loses First Point

Juneau, Sept. 23.—After examining ninety nine men a jury was secured in the Edward Krause murder case Thursday. The trial started yesterday in the district court and yesterday morning the prosecution outlined the case against Krause. Attorney Kraucunas, for Krause, lost the first point in the case when he asked the court to dismiss the case on the grounds that the prosecution has failed to prove anything against him. In his opening statements Judge Jennings denied the motion from Kraucunas. Several business men of Juneau were called on the stand and testified to the good standing of Capt. Plunkett and all stated that his habits were such that he was unlikely to leave Juneau for any length of time without leaving word of some kind. Much interest is expressed here in the trial.

J. G. Galvin Is Boosting Local Mine

J. G. Galvin, the live wire promoter of the Groundhog Basin mines gives out the following story in the Seattle Times of the 18th, last.

Mine At Wrangell To Have Railway

Ten Miles of Line Will Be Built Into Bon Alaska Property, Says John Galvin, Promoter of Concern.

Having successfully financed the Bon Alaska Mining Company, Jerry Galvin, well-known Northerner, will leave for Fort Wrangell in a few days with a big crew of men to lay the grade for ten miles of mountain railroad, running from the mouth of Mill Creek which empties into the sea ten miles from Wrangell, to the Groundhog basin. Galvin arrived from New York last night, and is at The Seattle.

"We don't expect to ship any ore this winter," he said, "but as soon as the snow leaves the ground next spring and the steel can be laid, we will begin shipping 600 tons a day. This winter will be devoted to getting in the electrical plant, building flumes and laying the grade for the railroad. It will be impossible to get the necessary steel before next April or May.

"An abundance of ore already has been blocked out, but further development in the mine will be carried on this winter. A number of crosscuts will be made and some tunnel driven. The ore bodies, carrying gold, lead, silver and zinc are large, and there is ample tonnage for a long time. We will employ about fifty men and use about ten or twelve horses this winter. We are already building the necessary wharf."

Galvin said the East appears to be prosperous.

Ducks Are Plentiful On Flats

J. W. PRITCHETT,
 Wrangell, Alaska, Sept. 23, 1916.

The Sentinel Changes Hands

With this issue the present management and owner of the Wrangell Sentinel steps aside and in the future Mr. J. W. Pritchett will hold the destinies of the Sentinel. Mr. Pritchett is well known to many of our readers, being a brother of Mrs. Chas. Follansbee, and having visited her here last summer. Mr. Pritchett is a thorough newspaper man and knowing the business from A to Z so that we believe under his able management the Sentinel will start upon a bright future.

The Editor assumed charge of the Sentinel exactly three years ago Sept. 23, 1913, and while during that time things have not always been of the brightest we are leaving Wrangell with a feeling of regret and to the many friends who have stood by us and all others, we thank you for the courtesies shown us and the Sentinel, and only pray that they may continue both to the benefit and profit of yourself and the new management of the Sentinel.

 To half pint of water add 1 oz. Bay Rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and 1/4 oz. of glycerine. Apply to the hair twice a week until it becomes the desired shade. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. Full directions for making and use come in each box of Barbo Compound. It will gradually darken streaked, faded gray hair, and removes dandruff. It is excellent for falling hair and will make harsh hair soft and glossy. It will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy, and does not wash off.

A Vote For Wickersham Is A Vote Against Boss Rule In Alaska

James Wickersham, Independent Candidate for Delegate

To the People of Alaska

More than 250 qualified electors in the Fairbanks district, where I reside, have signed and filed with the proper officials a petition in accordance with the law, for my nomination as a candidate for Delegate to Congress, from Alaska.

Having concluded to yield to general demand from Alaskans to make the race I hereby announce the principles and purposes for which I shall stand in case of my election.

The lawful control of transportation rates to, from and in Alaska.

The enforcement of the Interstate Commerce and Anti-Trust laws in Alaskan trade, commerce and transportation.

The prompt completion of the government railroad; the extension of a system of public roads and trails and government telegraph lines to all parts of the Territory.

The passage of laws by Congress for the extension of the powers of the Alaska Legislature over fisheries and fur bearing animals, and the enactment of such laws as will save the fisheries from destruction and the enactment of such laws as will require those engaged in Alaskan fisheries to pay their just proportion of taxes for the development of Alaska and her government.

The enactment of laws by Congress extending the powers of our Legislature so as to permit the full development of an American type of Territorial government in Alaska.

Statehood for Alaska as soon as it can be organized in the interest and to the advantage of the people.

The abandonment of the present useless and harmful forest and other reservations in Alaska.

Opposition to the levy of any tax on trade or business in Alaska by Congress, and the repeal of the law now providing for such system, and the control of taxation in Alaska by the Territorial Legislature.

The appointment of Alaska Alaskans, and none others, to appointive offices in Alaska; and I utterly repudiate that plank in the Seward platform seeking to take away from the people of Alaska their right to be consulted in the consideration of such appointment and to give the sole power of naming such officials to a Seattle lawyer; it is un-American, un-Republican and the beginning of boss rule in Alaska by the great corporations able to employ the lawyer; I pledge the people of Alaska that if I am elected I will not recommend any man for an appointive office in Alaska who is not first approved by the people of the Territory, and by those residing in the vicinity where he is to serve.

The enactment of primary election laws.

Finally, I shall support Hughes and Fairbanks, and the National Republican Platform, unless they or those representing them shall interfere with the passage of needful and beneficial laws for Alaska, in which event I shall stand by Alaska and her interests, as I always have done, without regard to party threats or favor.
